ALEXANDRIA EDUCATORS ENDORSE CANDIDATES

Educators' PAC Chooses Local Candidates in November Elections

Alexandria, VA, July 15, 2021: The Alexandria Political Action Committee for Education (APACE) announced today those candidates who have the endorsement of Alexandria's public educators in the November 2021 municipal elections. APACE is the political action arm of the Education Association of Alexandria, affiliated with both the Virginia Education Association and the National Education Association, which represents members who work in the Alexandria City Public Schools.

APACE asked all Mayor/City Council and School Board candidates to respond to a questionnaire and then interviewed each candidate who returned a questionnaire on time. The APACE recommendations were then disseminated to the EAA Board of Directors.
